Elected to the Board of Equalization in 2006, Michelle Steel serves as the country's highest ranking Korean-American elected official. She represents the over 8.5 million taxpayers of the Third Board of Equalization District, including the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Riverside, Imperial and San Bernardino.

Assessor Bill Postmus was sworn in as the county assessor in January 2007 after serving 6 years as county supervisor, representing the First Supervisorial District. From 2005-06, Assessor Postmus served as chair of the county's Board of Supervisors. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and Management from the University of Redlands. Postmus is designated by the state of California as a Certified Property Tax Appraiser. As assessor, Bill Postmus is credited with reducing property tax assessments by millions of dollars.
