

San Bernardino County Flood Control District

Estimate of Surplus Material (as of April 1, 2019)

Facility	City	Quantity	Description
Day Creek stockpile Open for proposals until 5-6-2019	County-Rancho Cucamonga	40,000 cy	In stockpile
San Sevaine Basin #5 * Open for proposals until 9-7-2019	Rancho Cucamonga	390,000 cy	Stockpiled in basin (fill dirt)
Patton Basin *	San Bernardino	2,500 cy	In stockpile (fill dirt with some vegetation)
Santa Ana River at Waterman Ave	San Bernardino	80,000 cy	In stockpile (sand with silt & heavy vegetation)
San Timoteo Basins * Open for proposals until 9-11-2019	Redlands	150,000 cy	In basins (fine grain sand, fill dirt) Awaiting environmental approval
San Timoteo Stockpile * at Alessandro Road	Redlands	25,000 cy	In stockpile (heavy organics & debris included)
Bandicoot Basin site Open for proposals until 5-7-2019	Hesperia	1,000,000 cy	Fill dirt (native soil)

Note: The District makes no guarantee as to the actual quantity or quality of available material and reserves the right to select the permittee(s) that best meet the needs of the District's operation schedule. All submitted Soil Removal applications must include a requested quantity, a proposed start date, and an expected rate of removal. Any requests for removals in excess of 10,000 cubic yards must go through the District's Soil Removal Proposal process.

*Any facility with an asterisk (*) denotes that no screening will be permitted at this site. Facilities in San Bernardino and Redlands may have trucking issues; discuss with the inspector.*

Maps with facility locations are available at 825 E. Third Street, Room 108, in San Bernardino.

For questions on a specific location or an appointment to review the site, please contact our inspector Brad Mecham at (909) 387-7808.

Disposal Site - Material Wanted

Facility	City	Quantity	Description
Chino Creek	Chino Hills	6,000 cy	4"-15" cobble/boulders

❖ Also Available from another County Department

Facility	City	Quantity	Description
❖ San Timoteo Landfill	Redlands	1,500,000 cy	Fill dirt

- ❖ For information on this material, please contact Mr. Marc Rodabaugh with the Solid Waste Management Division at 909-386-9017.